The leave applied for may be granted.

Sanction is also asked for to the grant to Dr. Rangachar, the Senior Medical Assistant, who will look after the current duties of the Health Officer, of a Special pay of Rs.100/-..

It may, however, be mentioned that when Dr. Goverdhan was granted a month's leave in 1931, Messrs.M.A.Rahman and P.Rangachar, who then held charge of the current duties of the Health Officer, were granted a special pay of Rs.25/- each.

As the President, Municipal Commission, recommends a special pay of Rs.100/- per mensem this time, it may perhaps be sanctioned.

Para 41 minimum pay

Under Fundamental Rule 31, a Govt. servant officiating in a post will draw the presumptive pay of that post. F.R. 35 lays down that a local Govt. may fix the pay of an officiating Govt. servant at an amount less than that admissible under these rules.

The P.M.C. has not recommended that Dr. Rangachar should be appointed to officiate in the post of the Health Officer. He recommended that Dr. Rangachar should be in charge of the current duties of the Health Officer and be granted a special pay of Rs.100 per mensem. We pointed out that when Messrs. Rahman and Rangachar held charge of the current duties of the Health Officer in 1931, they were granted a special pay of only Rs.25/- each, and asked why uniformity was not was not observed in the matter of special pay. The P.M.C. gives the following reasons for the enhanced payment:-

1) The Officer is fully qualified.

2) In the previous case the responsibility was divided.

3) The responsibility is for a longer period this time as the leave applied for is for 2 months as against one month on the previous occasion.

The P.M.C. also says that under Fundamental Rules (he means F.R.31) the officiating incumbent can get the minimum pay of the post, namely Rs.500/-. But under F.R. 35, the pay can be reduced.

Now please see another precedent wherein Dr. Rahman a single officer was appointed to look after the current duties of the Health Officer when the permanent incumbent went on leave for a month and a half in March 1937. Dr. Rahman was then granted a special pay of Rs.60/- per mensem. It appears that this precendent may be followed in the present case and a special pay of Rs.60/- granted to Dr. Rangachar during the period he is in charge of the current duties of the Health Officer. It is necessary that in view of the present financial condition, the Commission should cut short their expenditure to the minimum.

In this view a draft is submitted for consideration.

To

SIR,

Subject:- Grant of leave to Dr. M. R. Goverdhan, Health Officer, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

With reference to the 2nd para of your letter No.11192 dated the 11th December 1933, I have the honour to inform you that a special pay of Rs.100/- per mensem was recommended to Dr. Rangachar for the following reasons:-

(1) The officer is fully qualified to hold the appointment of a Health Officer.

(2) On the previous occasion referred to in the letter under reply the appointment was not held by one single officer but the duties and responsibilities were divided between the 2 Medical Assistants, each of whom was granted an allowance of Rs.25/-.

(3) The permanent Health Officer has been granted leave for two months and Dr. Rangachar will have to bear the full responsibility for a longer period than before, and will not merely be in the position of one carrying on current duties during the absence of the permanent incumbent for a short period.

I would also point out that under the Fundamental Rules Dr. Rangachar could be granted the minimum pay of the Health Officer's appointment, namely Rs.500/- per mensem. In the circumstances, I recommend that the grant of a special pay of Rs.100/- per mensem to Dr. Rangachar may kindly be approved.

Dated, Bangalore, the 22nd January *193*4.

Subject.

Special pay to Dr. Rangachar while in charge of the current duties of the Health Officer on leave.

SIR,

S.N.3

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter No.8622/33, dated the 15th December 1933, on the subject mentioned above, and to point out that when Dr. Amritraj was granted leave on average pay for a month and a half in March 1927, Mr. M. A. Rahman, Senior Medical Assistant of the Municipal Commission was granted a special pay of Rs.60/- per mensem for the period he was in charge of the current duties of the Health Officer - vide this office letter No.2790/398-1898, dated the 26th March 1927.

In view of the present precarious financial position of the Municipal Commission, it is very necessary that they should curtail their expenditure as far as possible. In the circumstances the Hon'ble the Resident considers that it will suffice if a special pay of Rs.60/- per mensem is given to Dr. Rangachar, Senior Medical Assistant of the Municipal Commission, for holding charge of the current duties of the Health Officer during the absence on leave of Dr.

of Dr. Goverdhan for eight weeks, and this is accordingly sanctioned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

O/c

Major,
SECRETARY TO THE RESIDENT.
